Supplementary information for Campus Berlin

according to the key points for the summer term 2022 for Berlin universities of the State Conference of Rectors and Presidents of Berlin Universities (LKRP) agreed in coordination with the Senate Department for Higher Education and Research, Health, Long-Term Care and Gender Equality.

In compliance with the rules of protection and hygiene of Macromedia and the Senate Department all courses are held primarily in presence. In addition to courses in presence, online courses are offered for didactic reasons and according to the mPower concept.

The campus library offers their lending services, the online library can still be used. Workstations and PC pools will be open.

As FFP2 masks are a highly effective tool to protect against infections, they must always be worn on campus! This does not apply to lecturers, as long as sufficient distance can be kept. Specific needs of students and lecturers belonging to vulnerable groups must be adequately addressed on an individual basis. In cases of disobeying this rule, wearing of FFP2 masks can be ordered and even an expulsion from campus may be pronounced.

A minimum distance of 1.5 meters should be maintained as far as the conduct of teaching and research operations permits.

Based on these principles, teaching at Campus Berlin will take place in presence to return to a vibrant campus life. Like all universities, Campus Berlin is not only a place for knowledge transfer. It is also a place of exchange, discussion and social interaction. The contact with one another – under the compliance of the Macromedia hygienic concept - shall be a regular part of teaching and studying, again.

To realize this goal, we request students, lecturers and employees to continue to act responsibly and take care of each other's health protection. This should also include voluntary actions like following 3G rules and using testing opportunities.
